

Captain Corcoran – H.M.S. Pinafore (Caramoor International Music Festival - 2011, Vancouver Opera - 2022)

"The principals were impressive: Lyric baritone Jorell Williams was excellent as the Pinafore's captain..." - Vancouver Sun

"As the Captain, Williams has a smooth baritone, with an equally effortless comedic talent." - Stir Arts & Culture

"Jorell Williams, also a baritone, was a magnificent, rich-toned Captain Corcoran. His comic timing was perfect, both as the captain and, in the final scene, as a common sailor." - The New York Times

"Baritone Jorell Williams was a fine, concise Captain." - Opera News

"Jorell Williams was endearing as Captain Corcoran, with a burnished vocal tone and a deadpan comic style." - The News-Times

"Baritone Jorell Williams delivered a commendable Captain Corcoran with perfect comedic timing..." - The New York Arts

"With Crutchfield conducting the Orchestra of St. Luke's and a cast of operatically trained voices, the evening indeed fit at least the literal translation of 'bel canto,' which is Italian for 'beautiful singing'... Baritone Jorell Williams was a smooth-voiced captain..." - Associated Press / ABC News

"Jorell Williams performed the Captain with a pleasing baritone and a touching faith in his role as role-model..." - Parterre Box

"All the singers were excellent actors as well..." - Berkshire Fine Arts
